Can't find what you're looking for? No problem!

We carry a comprehensive inventory of mechanical seal components, which allows us to build the right seal for your application. We'll even design custom seals for one-of-a-kind applications.

PRACTICE CPR – CONVENIENT PUMP REPAIR

Our goal is to make your repair easy without compromising on quality. Repair kits greatly reduce costly downtime, saving costs while sustaining production. Our pump rebuild kits are supplied with the same components you'll find in an OEM kit; however, we offer them at a fraction of the price.

Need hard faces or specialty elastomers? Give us a call. We can quickly build a repair kit to withstand any medium being pumped. You'll find J Royal's pump repair kits an invaluable part of your operation.
